Interstate Transmission of Wagering Information

"The Office" is a term utilized by Milwaukee hoodlums to refer to the location of the bookmaking headquarters of the Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra (LCN). "The Office" is responsible for obtaining odds ("line") information from outside the State of Wisconsin and distributing same to other prominent Milwaukee books. In addition to obtaining and distributing "line" information, "The Office" handles bets from a few select customers and takes layoff action from other local books. Information received from reliable sources indicates that Frank Peter Balistreri, b/w, Milwaukee LCN, has assigned Steve John De Salvo, capodecima, Milwaukee LCN, the duty of coordinating LCN gambling operations. De Salvo, in turn, supervises "The Office" and assures that Balistreri obtains his "cut" of "The Office" take.

Although reliable information had been received to the effect that Frank Daddabbo was operating "The Office" telephones and making payoffs and collections, the location of "The Office" was not known by Agents of the FBI until September 18, 1968. On September 18, 1968 Steve John De Salvo was observed by FBI Agents parking in the vicinity of North 27th Street and West Clybourn Street, Milwaukee. He proceeded into an alley and ran toward the rear of the apartment building situated at 431-437 North 27th Street. Several moments later a vehicle registered to Frank P. Daddabbo was observed parked proximate to De Salvo's vehicle.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On September 19, 1968 Daddabbo was observed entering the back door of the apartment building at 431-437 North 27th Street. FBI Agents also observed Anthony Samuel Cefalu and Salvatore Jack Dentice leaving the building via the same route. Cefalu and Dentice are known gamblers who have been associated with "The Office" in the past.

Since September 19, 1968 Cefalu, Daddabbo and Dentice have been observed entering and leaving the building in question on numerous occasions between 9:45 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Vehicles registered to Daddabbo and Dentice have also been observed parked in the vicinity. De Salvo has not been observed at the location in question since his initial observance in that vicinity. However, the Milwaukee Police Department has had De Salvo under continuous surveillance since September 22, 1968, and officials at that department have advised that De Salvo is aware of the surveillance.

On October 7, 1968 Daddabbo and Cefalu were observed entering Apartment 220 at 431-437 North 27th Street. On October 9, 1968 Daddabbo and Dentice were observed entering the same apartment, and Daddabbo was again observed entering Apartment 220 on October 10, 1968.

Apartment 220 at 431-437 North 27th Street is rented under the name of [redacted] and is a one bedroom semi-furnished apartment - the living room being furnished and the bedroom unfurnished. Cash rent is slipped underneath the apartment manager's door on or about the first of each month. Cefalu, Daddabbo, Dentice and De Salvo are the only individuals known to frequent the apartment in question, and information has been received to the effect that no one actually "lives" in the apartment - the premises being used only during the day.

Records of [redacted] reflect that

On November 24, 1967 MI T-2 advised that PETER FRANK BALISTRIERI's son, JOSEPH, had been operating a craps game in partnership with one FRANK DADDABBO.

On March 5, 1968 MI T-2 advised that a craps game was conducted on February 18, 1968 at the One Plus One Bar, 1694 North Van Buren Street (telephone 272-3044) - the One Plus One Bar being run by [REDACTED] SAM FERRARA, former boss of the Milwaukee LCN. The craps game was conducted by [REDACTED]

ANTHONY PETER MACHI, 5553 West Jackson Park Drive), FRANK DADDABBO and JOSEPH BALISTRIERI, son of PETER FRANK BALISTRIERI. Source was of the opinion that the craps game was regularly held at the One Plus One Bar.

On May 3, 1968 MI T-3 advised that FRANK DADDABBO was taking bets and was, in turn, calling them into "The Office," bookmaking establishment under the control of FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI. Source considered DADDABBO to be a runner for "The Office."

On August 14, 1968 MI T-4 advised that FRANK DADDABBO is working for "The Office." DADDABBO is operating the telephones at "The Office," but source could furnish no information regarding the location of "The Office" or operation.

On December 17, 1968 MI T-3 advised that "The Office" is being operated by SHERIFF CEFALU, FRANK DADDABBO and SAM DENTICE, and is controlled by STEVE JOHN DE SALVO who is, in turn, responsible to FRANK BALISTRIERI. On December 31, 1968 an effort was made to contact subject at Apartment 3, 2815 South 14th Street. SA [REDACTED] ascertained that no one was home at that address, but observed DADDABBO's name on the mail box and a note on the door indicating that the apartment manager (DADDABBO) could be contacted at 352-5358 in case of emergency. The 1968 City of Milwaukee Telephone Directory reflects that 352-5358 is listed to CHESTER DADDABBO, 2915 West Valanna Court. Interstate Transmission of Wagering Information

"The Office" is a term utilized by Milwaukee bookmakers to refer to the location of the bookmaking headquarters of the Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra (LCN). "The Office" is responsible for obtaining odds ("line") information from outside the State of Wisconsin and distributing same to other prominent Milwaukee books. In addition to obtaining and distributing "line" information, "The Office" handles bets from a few select customers and take layoff action from other local books. Information received from reliable sources indicates that Frank Peter Balistreri, boss, Milwaukee LCN, has assigned Steve John De Salvo, capodecina, Milwaukee LCN, the duty of coordinating LCN gambling operations. De Salvo, in turn, supervises "The Office" and assures that Balistreri obtains his "Cut" of "The Office" take.

Although reliable information had been received to the effect that Frank Daddabbo was operating "The Office" telephones and making payoffs and collections, the location of "The Office" was not known by Agents of the FBI until September 18, 1968. On September 18, 1968 Steve John De Salvo was observed by FBI Agents parking in the vicinity of North 27th and West Clybourn Streets, Milwaukee. He proceeded into an alley and ran toward the rear of the apartment building situated at 431-437 North 27th Street. Several moments later a vehicle registered to Frank P. Daddabbo was observed parked proximate to De Salvo's vehicle.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On September 19, 1968 Daddabbo was observed entering the back door of the apartment building at 431-437 North 27th Street. FBI Agents also observed Anthony Samuel Cefalu and Salvatore Jack Dentice leaving the building via the same route. Cefalu and Dentice are known gamblers who have been associated with "The Office" in the past. Records of the Identification Division of the FBI reflect that Cefalu has been arrested several times by the Milwaukee Police Department for various gambling violations. These same records further indicate that Cefalu and Dentice were arrested on March 29, 1967 by the Internal Revenue Service for accepting wagers and failure to pay the wagering stamp tax. The place where Cefalu and Dentice were arrested was believed, at that time, to be the location of "The Office."

Since September 19, 1968 Cefalu, Daddabbo and Dentice have been observed entering and leaving the building in question on numerous occasions between 9:45 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. Vehicles registered to Daddabbo and Dentice have also been observed parked in the vicinity. De Salvo has not been observed at the location in question since his initial observance in that vicinity. However, the Milwaukee Police Department has had De Salvo under continuous surveillance since September 22, 1968, and officials at that department have advised that De Salvo is aware of the surveillance.

On October 7, 1968 Daddabbo and Cefalu were observed entering Apartment 220 at 431-437 North 27th Street. On October 9, 1968 Daddabbo and Dentice were observed entering the same apartment, and Daddabbo was again observed entering Apartment 220 on October 10, 1968.

Vehicles listed to Daddabbo and Dentice were regularly observed parked in the vicinity of the apartment building situated at 431-437 North 27th Street until November 22, 1968. Since November 22, 1968 vehicles known to be used by Dentice and Daddabbo have not been observed in that vicinity, and information has been received from Milwaukee FBI sources who are familiar with activities at that location, to the effect that activity in Apartment 220 at 431-437 North 27th Street has substantially diminished. The same sources, however, indicate that the location has not been abandoned and activity, although quite limited, continues. Based upon past experience, it would indicate that the diminished activity is due generally to a lull in sports betting activity which occurs between the end of the college football season and the beginning of the professional baseball season.

Apartment 229 at 431-437 North 27th Street is rented under the name of [redacted] and is a 1-bedroom semi-furnished apartment - the living room being furnished and the bedroom unfurnished. Cash rent is slipped underneath the apartment manager's door on or about the first of each month. An envelope used to submit rent for the month of November, 1968 was submitted to the FBI Laboratory and a latent fingerprint examination conducted in regard to that envelope which bore the numerals "229" identified a latent fingerprint as belonging to Salvatore Jack Dentice. Cefalu, Baddabbo, Dentice and De Salvo are the only individuals known to frequent the apartment in question, and information has been received to the effect that no one actually "lives" in the apartment - the premises being used only during the day.

Records of [redacted] reflect that [redacted]

[redacted] There is no tenant named [redacted] at 431-437 North 27th Street.

Every available investigative technique has been employed by the FBI, Milwaukee, in an effort to establish a violation of the interstate transmission of wagering information statute; however, these efforts have been unsuccessful.

downtown night spots during the evenings. Most of the bookies are not students and depend on other sources for information, but PCI could not state the source of the "line." PCI was of the opinion the "line" was coming into Milwaukee from out of Wisconsin but he could not state when or how the "line" is obtained. At times, PCI is of the impression that the bettors are obtaining "line" information faster than the bookies.

On 11/15/68, PCI [redacted] advised SA [redacted] that DENTICE and CEFALU were observed in a Chrysler, bearing Wisconsin license Z16398. Z16398 is listed to JOSEPH DENTICE, 1611 North Jackson. PCI was of the opinion that "line" information is coming from Chicago or Las Vegas and could be obtained at any time. PCI, however, could not substantiate that information.

On 12/3/68, [redacted] advised SA BRANDT that it was his opinion that the total amount of gambling handled in the State of Wisconsin amounted to $180,000 per week and of that amount $100,000 was handled in the Milwaukee area. Informant felt that the principal bookmaking figures in the Milwaukee area were FRANK SANSONE, [redacted], LOUIS FAZIO, [redacted], and "The Office," a bookmaking establishment under the control of DE SALVO and "Sheriff" CEFALU.

Informant was of the opinion that bookmakers handle lay off action with each other by telephone and collections and pay offs are usually made in the downtown area on Mondays. Lay off action collections are usually made by personal contacts among the bookmakers; however, collections from individual customers most likely are handled in the "drop" method. Informant believed that "line" information was coming from Chicago and that possibly FRANK SANSONE was contacting a Chicago source telephonically. Informant pointed out that public telephones would normally be utilized in making the calls but he could furnish no specific information regarding the obtaining of "line" information.

On 12/3/68, PCI [redacted] advised SA BRANDT that the chief bookmakers in the Milwaukee area were FRANK SANSONE, SAM CEFALU, "Sheriff" CEFALU, [redacted]

SAM LIBRIZZI, and STEVE HALMO.

PCI estimated that the total commercial bookmaking handled in the State of Wisconsin amounted to $175,000, of which $115,000 to $125,000 was being handled by commercial bookmakers in Milwaukee County. He believed that the average intelligent commercial bookmaker was operating on a seven and a half per cent profit basis.

The informant advised that bookmakers lay off bets with each other when they become overloaded on certain games, and the individual with whom they lay off is determined by the best possible odds each bookmaker can obtain. A bookmaker's ability to lay off at the best odds has a direct bearing on the amount of profit they will realize in their overall operation.

The PCI advised he has been questioned many times in the past concerning the method by which line information is brought to the local bookmakers. Through his contact with the bookmakers and some of the statements they have made, he now believes that the football line is coming into Milwaukee from Las Vegas, Nev. He said it would be a simple matter for someone in Las Vegas, where bookmaking is legal, to walk into a sports book, copy down the line information, and then go to a public telephone booth and call a bookmaker in Milwaukee to furnish him with this line information. He stated no individual in his right mind would use a telephone which could be traced back to him to obtain line information from outside of the State.

Regarding collection procedures, the PCI advised in some instances a top figure relationship is established between a bookmaker and a customer or between individual bookmakers, who lay off with each other. When this top figure is reached in bets placed, the individuals are requested to put up a certain amount of money for any additional bets they wish to make. The money is collected through both personal contact with the bookmaker and his customer or by the utilization of drops where the customer will leave money at a certain location which is later picked up by the bookmaker. The PCI indicated that "The Office," a bookmaking operation, which he suspects is being run by "Sheriff" CEFALU, is in bad condition financially, and he

Leads

It should be noted that in referenced report a lead was set forth to interview "Sheriff" CEFALU regarding his involvement in "The Office." At the time the lead was set forth, it was believed that CEFALU was no longer active in that operation. Since "The Office" has been located and CEFALU has been associated with "The Office," he has not been contacted regarding his involvement.

Specific leads are not being set forth in instant matter, inasmuch as Milwaukee desires to establish an interstate aspect prior to setting out specific leads.

Spot checks conducted in the vicinity of 27th and West Clybourn between November 22, 1968, and January 20, 1969, have been unsuccessful in identifying vehicles driven by SAM DENTICE and FRANK DADDABBO.

Spot checks have also been conducted at 2815 South 14th Street (DADDABBO's home) and 1611 North Jackson (DENTICE's home) and the vehicles have not been observed at those locations. However, there has been no indication that either DADDABBO or DENTICE have moved.

During the period in question, DENTICE's vehicle has been observed parked opposite Scortino's Bakery, Brady and Humboldt, during the morning hours. Investigation to date has not developed information regarding DENTICE's activities in the afternoon. DENTICE, on occasion, has been observed driving a Scortino's Bakery delivery truck but efforts to determine his route have been unsuccessful.
